Mayor,

It is clear that you personally took it upon yourself to go outside your codified job description for "The Run" on July 16th. You were the host... and you were everywhere. You were the welcomer-in-chief and made sure the downtown accommodated the hundreds of men, women and children who gathered in good spirit...to do good things.

Terry, I envy you your position. Every mayor is a peacemaker, negotiator and deal maker on issues. But it's when that mayor has the opportunity to orchestrate and personally impact the mood of a significant gathering of citizens and neighbors that the job becomes enviable.

It was an honest delight to get out of Cleveland and its environs and become part of an America, an Ohio that prides itself on a simple, straight forward approach to what is obviously a complicated world around us.

Doylestown is wonderful...and you and Nancy are to be congratulated (as well as envied) for your parts in its community life.

Be well. I know our paths will cross again. I look forward to it.

Tom
